

PROPERTY PRACTITIONERS REGULATORY AUTHORITY

IMPORTANT COMMUNICATION ON THE LETTER TO BE SUBMITTED BY CANDIDATE PROPERTY PRACTITIONERS CONFIRMING COMPLETION OF LOGBOOKS AND PRACTICAL TRAINING WITH EFFECT FROM 1 JULY 2024

1. The purpose of this communication is to provide clarity to candidate property practitioners on what they will be required to do from 1 July 2024 regarding the logbook, practical training requirements and related issues.
2. As communicated before, the PPRA will not be accepting logbooks and candidate property practitioners will be required to submit a letter co-signed by their principals or mentors either confirming that they have completed their logbook or the 6 practical training modules (whichever is applicable). To access the letter template, please click on this link https://theppra.org.za/ppra\_forms
3. In addition to the above and the Education learning pathways we published recently, the following clarity is provided:
  - 3.1 Candidate property practitioners who have been awarded an equivalency exemption and mandated to do practical training will be required to complete practical training within 180 days of being issued a fidelity fund certificate (FFC). The modules to be completed are contained in the Guidelines for the implementation of practical training which can be found on our website.
  - 3.2 Candidate property practitioners wishing to pursue the new occupational qualification will be allowed to apply for an FFC and enrol for the new occupational qualification simultaneously. Thus, the previously communicated requirement for candidates to first do the Knowledge and Practical Experience modules before applying for an FFC, will no longer apply. This requirement will also apply to candidate property practitioners whose FFCs were applied for before 30 June 2024 but are issued from 1 July 2024.

3.3 Should the candidate property practitioners not succeed in complying with the 180 day rule applicable to all candidate property practitioners, they may apply to the PPRA for extension of their candidationship for a further period of 180 days showing good cause why such an extension should be granted as contemplated in Regulation 33.4.5.

Issued by: The Property Practitioners Regulatory Authority

Date: 28 June 2024