7. Guidelines for initiating a complaint with the Property Practitioners Regulatory Authority.
  - 7.1 Send the form to legal@theppra.org.za. only once in respect of the same complaint to avoid duplication which may delay the investigation of your complaint.
  - 7.2 Should you not be contacted by our offices within 14 days of lodging this form with us, please contact our call centre on 011 731 5600.
  - 7.3 Once you have been provided with a reference number for your complaint, you will be notified by the Regulatory Authority of the progress of your complaint. Please refrain from contacting the Regulatory Authority regarding the progress of your complaint unless more than 8 weeks have elapsed from the Board's last communication with you.
  - 7.4 The Property Practitioners Regulatory Authority does not have jurisdiction over the actions of property practitioners in their private capacity.
  - 7.5 The Property Practitioners Regulatory Authority is not a civil court and cannot usurp the powers of one.
  - 7.6 Should your complaint be referred for adjudication you will have to be present to testify against the respondent Property Practitioners.
  - 7.7 Should any correspondence sent to the address as provided by the complainant be returned by the postal authorities and all tracing efforts prove futile, we will summarily close our file.
  - 7.8 Any further documentation requested by the Regulatory Authority in respect of a complaint should be sent directly to the specified person at the number/address provided.
  - 7.9 Should your complaint be deemed to be founding a possible claim against the Fidelity Fund you will be contacted by our claims department who may request further information from you.
